Message from the Director

Dear ISC,

Just a couple reminders-

For all seniors who plan to attend university in the United States, tonight information will be presented by the U.S. Consulate regarding the student visa process. Parents, it is important for you to attend as well. General information regarding the college application process will also be presented by Mrs. Kate Ribeiro. This information will be helpful to current grade 11 students and their parents.

High school students, the final exam schedule is set and has been posted online. Click the following links for details.

Seniors \(non IB exams\)

Grades 9-11

There will be a family beach day this Friday, presented by our PTA and hosted by the Hilton. Please see page 7 for details and to RSVP.

Enjoy the four day weekend.

National Junior Honor Society Members Volunteer at Ronald McDonald House

Last week NJHS students visited the Ronald McDonald Family room at the SEHOS, where they not only learned about the organization, but also helped prepare breakfast for families staying at the RMH. SEHOS staff was also treated to delicious and healthy cupcakes brought by our students.

RMHC needs volunteers! If you're 16 years and older and are interesting in volunteering, please contact them directly!

PTA NEWS: Family Beach Day at the Hilton

Dear Parents,

On Friday, May 11th, PTA will be hosting a Beach Day at the Hilton Hotel from 10-2. Entrance is being sponsored by the Hilton Hotel, this gives us free beach & pool access. We can order food and drinks from the bar/restaurant. Please bring your own towels. NO outside food/drinks please. RSVP to pta@isc.cw if you are interested. Also, once you are at the Hilton on Friday, PTA will have a check-in area by the pool to give you bracelets. We hope you can join us!

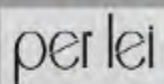

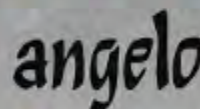

Special thanks to the Hilton for having us.
