An international education today for the global citizens of tomorrow.

VISION

The International School of Curaçao educates students from diverse cultures to have the skills to think creatively, communicate effectively, reason critically, and act compassionately.